

We Smoke OUR MEATS Daily!

8 TAP BEERS AND 28 CRAFT BEERS

{714} 646-9560
154395 711 N PLACENTIA AVE
FULLERTON, CA 92831

Facebook Yelp

Laguna Beach's House of Big Fish Resurrected as Big Fish Tavern

By Edwin Goei

Published Thu., Nov. 6 2014 at 6:33 AM

Laguna Beach's The House of Big Fish and Ice Cold Beer--the restaurant with a mouthful of words for a name and a slew of awards from us including Best Happy Hour 2011 and Best Seafood Restaurant 2010--closed last month when its owner, Casa Resorts, decided it was going to focus on its hotel properties.

But Big Fish lives on. Jim Walker and Louie Feinstein, owners of The Bungalow restaurant in Corona del Mar, have taken it over and last weekend it was officially resurrected as Big Fish Tavern.

The menu is still full of seafood. Fish and chips, clam chowder, lobster mac and cheese; but also pho in a veggie broth and chowder fries. And, of course, beer, which should probably still be just as "ice cold."

Big Fish Tavern has not only taken over the physical space of the old restaurant, but the old restaurant's Facebook and website now redirects to the new sites.

Check our more info at:

<https://www.facebook.com/BigFishTavern>

and

<http://www.bigfishtavernlaguna.com/>

Follow Stick a Fork In It on Twitter @ocweeklyfood or on Facebook! And don't forget to download our free Best Of App here!

